

According to acting Govenor Cody, the FCC is considering overturning the NJ do not call list. This list has been a blessing allowing our family to eat uninterrupted from all manners of aggressive and abusive and annoying nuisance calls. Please do not disturb my dinner!